

CHARACTER NAME

Toso

AGE

10

APPEARANCE

Tall and slender humanoid.

Cyborg that vaguely resembles a human.

Head is mostly featureless and smooth, no eyes or nose etc, but has a chin defined similarly to a human skull.

Hard metal, silver skin. Noticeable muscle-like patterns in arms and legs. Cybernetic insides visible between plates on "skin".

Usually wears dark grey and orange patterned robes, not unlike a monk.

Armed with a katana magnetically clung to his back.

TRAITS

Reverent

Loyal

Tireless

Proud

Humble

STRENGTH

Loyalty

WEAKNESS

Blunt

FEARS

Losing his parental figures.

Failing his mission.

GOALS

Defend his family and friends

Preserve the honour and will of the Noguchi family

BACKGROUND

Toso is a cyborg created by the Noguchi family for the purpose of defending his makers and their home. He is trained in various forms of martial arts and weaponry. The Noguchi's act as parental figures for Toso and are almost always communicating with him inside his head, though sometimes the loud speaker activates unintentionally. He met with Zero a few years ago when he needed help returning home and since then has been a strong member of the team.

PRESENT DAY

Absent. Currently at the Noguchi family home, tending to his owners.

RELATIONSHIPS TO PRESENT CHARACTERS

Toso and Zero

The two first met when Toso was stranded on Eos, lightyears away from home. The Noguchi family had been recommended to seek out Zero to help return the cyborg home, which led to their first encounter together. Toso became a close companion to Zero through difficult times, and as such the two are in each other's debt. Toso helped Zero take down Four before and now has been requested to help redeem him. He tried to change Zero's mind on the matter, but eventually gave in.

Toso and Four

The two are unwilling associates. Neither wants to be in the presence of each other as the wounds of their past battles still sting fresh. Toso doesn't have a nice history with Four unlike Zero, so to him he is naught but a fool. Zero asked Toso a favour however, and he can't say no to a friend. Since then he and Four have been sparring and training, though only Toso seems interested in even trying.